

Onion Lovers Riot in Bermuda

HARSH LANGUAGE and fisticuffs marred the Annual Convention of the usually harmonious Onion Lovers League International. A serious schism was narrowly averted after radicals within the association moved to admit garlic lovers to membership. The League has always dedicated itself to the advancement of the best in Onion, as exemplified by Gentry Pre-Pared* Onion. Those horrified purists holding this Onionated viewpoint threatened to bolt the convention, led by an angry Sir Fitzhugh Underbrush.

"Let down the bars? Never!" screamed Underbrush. "First it will be garlic lovers, then bell pepper lovers, then green onion lovers. We must remember that Gentry processes all of these Pre-Pared products—and many more—in their most flavorful, economical, and convenient dehydrated form. To admit them would be to belittle our most sublime and noble Pre-Pared Onion!"

"Flavor in its most economical form."

Fortunately, cooler heads prevailed, and Sergeant-at-Arms Col. Kimberly Kettle restored order in the unruly mob. It was pointed out that the Shepherd's Pie served at the convention luncheon was seasoned by both Pre-Pared Garlic and Pre-Pared Onion, as well as other cost-saving dehydrated seasonings. Finally, a reasonable compromise was thrashed out in which lovers of garlic, carrots, paprika, and other Pre-Pared products might be admitted to the League—provided they swear undying allegiance to the noble Onion as first and foremost among seasonings.
