WHEN YOU
WORK IN OILS,
WORK WITH A MASTER.

In the big picture, oil is not just a commodity anymore. As a major or essential ingredient in your bakery products, your snacks, your prepared processed foods, it is a crucial item in your production. That's where we come into the picture. When your product depends on a dependable supply of quality shortenings and oils, we're the supplier you can depend on. Humko oils and shortenings are formulated to our own exacting requirements. But if our requirements aren't exactly yours, tell us. We'll work to meet your needs. And we keep you up to date on all the trends, policies, conditions and developments in our business that can affect your business. So when you choose your supplier for an ingredient as important as oil, choose Humko. And work with the master. Humko Products, Box 398, Memphis, TN 38101. Phone 901-766-2100.
