

Fresh vegetable flavors are ready to pick right now!

Now, you don't have to wait until a new vegetable flavor becomes fashionable before it's available. Universal Flavors has the garden ripe flavors you want in their fresh new line of standard garden flavors.

Vegetable Garden flavors may be used as intermediates or on their own. You can choose from a tasty variety of natural vegetable flavorings including: celery, bell pepper, cucumber, carrot, garlic, onion, mushroom, jalapeno pepper, and mixed vegetable blend. And we're busy growing even more new flavors for tomorrow's harvest, too.

Vegetable Garden flavors from Universal are available in liquid concentrate or dry powder. They're delicious in soups, salad dressings, vegetable juice beverages, baked goods, snack food coatings, institutional foods, and many other places where a great vegetable flavor can help your product grow.

Chances are, the vegetable flavor you've been looking for is in our Vegetable Garden right now. Why not let your Universal representative help you harvest a bumper crop. Call or write: Universal Flavors, 5650 W. Raymond St., Indianapolis, IN 46241.
